In permitting Rajamantrapravina Mr. S. P. Rajagopalachari, B.A., B.L., First Member of Council, to retire from service on the expiry of the four months' leave with effect from 1st January 1939 granted to him, His Highness the Maharaja wishes to place on record his high appreciation of the valuable services rendered by him to the State during an official career of over 32 years.

After a brilliant academical career, Mr. Rajagopalachari entered the Mysore Civil Service in December 1906, having taken the first rank in the Competitive Examination held in that year. He served with distinction in various capacities, as Assistant Commissioner, Under Secretary to Government, Assistant Secretary on the Personal Staff of His Highness the Maharaja, and later as Excise Commissioner and Revenue Commissioner. Between 1931 and 1933, he acted for short periods as a Member of Council to which high office he was permanently elevated in September 1933. In all the positions held by him, he displayed talents of high order and his keen intelligence and varied experience were of invaluable help in the disposal of several important administrative and constitutional problems that came up for settlement from time to time.

In appreciation of his eminent services, His Highness the Maharaja was pleased to confer on him the distinction of "Rajamantrapravina" in the Dasara Durbar of 1934.
